THE RESULTS

The results will be given privately to those who originally attended this session. In the next session, we'll review the general results categories together to further explain the benefits of learning what your Personal Spiritual Gifts may be. This is a fun approximation and may not be an accurate description of all your Personal Spiritual Gifts. We hope it will be a guide to discover how God can use you more effectively for the Kingdom of God as you become more confident when focusing on your strengths.
