

In the Trenches Module 2

Overview: Regardless of which army has the superior weapons or controls the high ground, eventually the battle must come down to trench warfare, street to street, rubber meets the road, hour to hour, personal conflicts in daily living. Strategic Warfare minimizes the battles and lets you choose the battleground. Tactical Warfare occurs after the devil has chosen the battleground.

Review of Strategic versus Tactical Warfare.

1. Strategic Warfare is proactive, praying in advance to create your world with your words to avoid or minimize the conflicts of life. It is living in the Fruit of the Spirit, practicing the Armor of God (Eph 6) & going from glory to glory.
2. Strategic Warfare consists of staying in the KOG by remaining under Grace and includes: 1 Cor 2:16, Ps 19:14, Pro 3:5-6, John 8:31-32, Tithing, your morning and evening prayers (Ps 23, Ps 91, Eph 1 & 3, Col 1), confessing sins, interval USPs, Communion, Secondary Methods of Warfare (Healing).
3. Tactical Warfare is reactive, waiting for challenges and responding with warfare prayers, Mark 11:24, John 14:14, Isa 65:24, signs and wonders, Gifts of the Spirit. It is a response to the devil trying to pull you down.
4. Tactical Warfare prayers for reacting to attacks include Confessing sins, Rapid USPs, Affirmations, Cleansing, Secondary Methods of Healing, etc.

2. Rom 5:3-4 .... we glory in tribulation knowing that tribulation works patience and patience, experience; and experience, hope:
3. My experience is that the warfare gets easier and easier over the years, as you practice the Word of God and achieve more and more success.
4. The first life-threatening experience is the hardest, but continue to trust in God, for you know He will direct your path (Pro 3:5-6).
